

LOST

Sophie was a much loved veterinarian, lost to suicide aged 33.
Right now, the suicide rate for vets is four times higher than the average person.
Together, we can reverse this tragic trend by ensuring we respect our vet staff at all times.

To help us get more mental health support for vet professionals, sign the petition at sophieslegacy.com

If you are experiencing personal crisis or having suicidal thoughts, call Lifeline 13 11 14